

Wild Thing School of Yoga: Frequently Asked Questions & Administrative Policies

Questions	Answers
Do I need to have completed at 200hr Yoga Teacher Training to sign up for the 300hr Yoga Teacher Training?	Yes.
Do I need to have attended Wild Thing School of Yoga's 200hr YTT to sign up for Wild Thing School of Yoga's 300hr Advanced YTT?	No! Anyone who has completed a 200hr Yoga Teacher Training in the past is welcome!
Is the required reading included in the price of the training?	No, you will need to purchase the required reading books. We have left it to each participant to decide if they want to purchase new or used copies of these books and believe they will continue to add value even after graduation.
Is there a minimum age requirement to take the training?	You must be at least 15 years old. If you are under 18 years of age you must receive approval from the lead trainer and written consent from your legal guardian before the start of the training.
How much time should I expect to spend on homework?	Expect to spend between 2-3 hours every two week on homework. Assignments given are carefully chosen and designed to support material covered in class. The goal is to assist in integration of what is presented into one's own practice and teaching. Attendance and completion of assignments is required if a diploma is to be given. Individuals not planning to pursue teaching, may choose not to complete assignments and take the course for non-credit.
Will I be qualified to become an RYT-500 once I complete this 300-hr program?	Yes! With the successful completion of all the graduation requirements of the program, including contact hours, homework, and exam, you will receive your Diploma. You may then up-level your registration with Yoga Alliance (www.yogaalliance.org) to the RYT-500 level.
What is the Yoga Alliance?	Yoga Alliance is an organization that was started in 1999 as a way to create nationally recognized standards for yoga teachers and yoga teacher trainings in the US. Most studios require their teachers to be registered with Yoga Alliance.
How do I sign up?	Learn more and apply online at LanaReed.com . A deposit is due upon enrollment to hold your spot. Your payment is due in full by the early registration date in order to receive the discounted rate. Full payment is required the week before the start of the program unless a payment plan has been previously arranged.
What are the graduation requirements?	In order to graduate the program you must be paid in full and fulfill all the following requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attendance of all teacher training sessions unless a prior arrangement has been made. • Successful completion of all graduation requirements (i.e. homework, projects & exams) • Participation in practice teaching practicum • Completion of class taking and observation requirement
What if I don't want to be a teacher?	No problem! Our trainings are ideal for those who want to delve deeper into the study of yoga, and to improve their own practice. It's a fantastic option for students who simply want to have a transformational experience, and who want to be a part of the thriving yoga community. Read more about why yoga teacher training is not just for those who want to teach.
What is the teacher training cancellation and refund policy?	A deposit is due upon enrollment to hold your spot. This deposit is nonrefundable. If you cancel, 45 days or more before the start of the program you will forfeit your deposit, but any paid balance will be refunded in full. If you cancel or drop-out for any reason within 45 days of the start date or once the program has begun (orientation day or after), the training program tuition is non-refundable and non-transferable. To re-state, once the program begins the program tuition is non-refundable and non-transferable.
May I take the teacher training if I have a physical limitation?	With your doctor's permission and release, attendance may be an option. Learners who face minor physical limitations or recovered injuries are often able to be included as our curriculum is inclusive. It covers safe postures and movement for a varying range of abilities already.
May I take the teacher training if I am pregnant?	First and foremost, check with your physician. With your doctor's permission and release, attendance is absolutely an option. Minor physical limitations are welcome and can serve as helpful demonstrations giving fellow attendees a chance to learn how to work with students with similar limitations.
More Questions?	Let's get those questions answered! Contact Lana Reed, Lead Trainer.